enteral support

What is the Nutrition Service e-Bulletin?

It is a quick and easy way of staying abreast of the most recent changes and developments in enteral nutrition from Fresenius Kabi. The Nutrition Service e-Bulletin will keep you up-to-date with the latest enteral nutrition product developments, news, publications, study days and events.

What is the Quarterly Abstract Bulletin?

It is a free educational resource developed as part of Fresenius Kabi's commitment to support your continuing professional development. It is produced by our team of dietitians on a quarterly basis (as the name suggests) and comprises enteral nutrition support related abstracts from over 30 peer reviewed journals. The Quarterly Abstract Bulletin is an efficient and effective means of keeping abreast of new developments within this area of clinical nutrition.
